

Caroline Gammon

How it Works:

My game works because there is a paper clip under my game. And then, the magnet is attracted to some kinds of metal.
To be exact, iron or steel. And no matter what kind of paper
clip you see or use, it always steel. 2 sides

Start

finish

Caroline

Don't crash the insects!

Title

Caroline Gammon

Creator

How to Play:

1. Put the fairy at the start.

2. Put the magnet under the gameboard.

3. Use the magnet to fly the fairy to the Pixe Dust.

4. Try not to hit the bugs and insects.

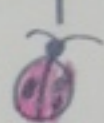

5. Get the fairy safely to the Pixe Dust bowl and you win!

't

Crash the Insects!

Ages 3+

Name _____

Science Game or Toy Project

	1	2	3	4
Writing Mechanics	Sentences do not begin with capital letters or end with punctuation. Writing is difficult to read. Project may be incomplete.	Some sentences begin with capital letters and end with punctuation. Writing is readable. Some assigned words are spelled accurately.	Most sentences begin with capital letters and end with punctuation. Writing is neat. Most assigned words are spelled accurately.	All sentences begin with capital letters and end with punctuation. Writing is neat. All assigned words are spelled accurately.
Science Content	Gives little or no explanation of how the game works.	Explains that the game works because the magnet moves the paper clip.	Explains that the game works because of magnetic force.	Explains that the game works because of magnetic force. Explains why the paper clip is attracted to the magnet and what material the force works through.